

WHY, ANNETTE!

By Jim Manoe

It seems that Annette Kellermann
Has got herself in bad
In Bally Philadelphia;
The pastors there are mad.
Her costume for her dancing scene
Is shy, the story goes,
And so they're going to tell the mayor
That Annette needs more clothes.

P. S. — And Miss Kellermann has such a pretty smile, too.

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

London.—Lloyd's dispatch states captain and part of crew of Norwegian steamer Finn, victim of submarine, have been safely landed.

Muskegon, Mich.—Buried under a cave-in of drainage ditch, Thomas Poland, farmer, probably fatally injured.

Athens.—German submarine torpedoed Greek steamer Starti. All passengers and crew except three saved.

Bowie, Md.—Stables at Bowie race track on fire; may be total loss.

San Francisco.—Five youths held up and robbed every one in exclusive Pacific Union club.

New York.—Col. H. E. Bennett, Oyster Bay politician and friend of Col. Roosevelt, arrested on charge of jury fixing. Says it's frame-up.

Washington.—War dep't has spent $600,000 for relief of needy families of guardsmen.

New London.—Freed from legal entanglements and repaired, submarine Deutschland may sail at any day or hour.

New York.—American airmen with French forces have brought down total of 21 German airplanes.

London.—Entire Brussels city council arrested for hiding list of city's unemployed from Germans.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Chicago Y. P. S. L. executive committee will meet Tuesday, Nov. 21, at 1310 N. Western av. All delegates should attend.

Emma Goldman will lecture on Russian literature tonight at Recital hall, Fine Arts bldg.

"Compulsory Arbitration" topic for debate at Douglas Park auditorium, Ogden and Kedzie, Wed. night. Auspices Lawndale Civic Center. Walter
F. Olds of Hamilton club, affirmative;
Chas. Dold, negative.

Socialist party, 34th ward branch, will meet Wed. night at Lawndale hall. Aldermanic caucus will be held.

Geo. Aron will speak on "Municipal Drug Stores," Wed. night at Lawndale hall, under auspices of the 34th Ward Socialist party.

Bridge and Structural Iron Workers'
Union No. 1, important meeting Thurs. night. Referendum vote on amendments to the international constitution.

Maplewood Y. P. S. L. meets at Temple hall, 2565 Fullerton av., Thursday, 8 p. m.

Second annual ball of Young American Br. 227 W. C., Feb. 3, West Side auditorium.

STRIKE FOR GOLD PAY

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 21. — All railway telegraphers in Northern Mexico are to walk out at 6 o'clock this evening in sympathy with striking trainmen. Trainmen struck to force payment of their wages in Mexican gold or American coin instead of Carranza currency.

BITS OF NEWS

Thomas Curry, 74, 3936 Michigan
av., hurt by taxi.

Kee & Chappell Dairy Co. to deliver milk to retail customers of Ira J. Mix Co. Said to be part of consolidation of two firms.

London.—Daily papers throughout England will be advanced half a penny a copy in price.